

Ever wondered How apps work?

Come learn JavaScript and more from David Okun, UD Physics alumnus at IBM.

David Okun, Class of '08

- Free pizza!
- Real career skills!
- No programming knowledge required!

Join us on Saturday, April 8 at 12:00pm in HSC 22 (the Computer Science lab) to get a taste of what it takes to build software.
Show up on time to be first in line for pizza.
